Re United States v Romero, Gustavo Llevano -Rivera
19cr734(WHP)

Dear Judge Pauley:

I represent Mr. Llevano-Rivera in the above referenced matter. I write seeking an amendment to Mr. Llevano-Rivera's conditions of bond to permit him to make deliveries of groceries for Pioneer Supermarket customers. Mr. Llevano-Rivera secured employment as a general grocery clerk with Pioneer Supermarket soon after his release on bond last October.

His conditions of bond, as set on October 24, 2019, include home detention with GPS monitoring and employment. He is to report to Pretrial as directed by his Pretrial Officer. His employer, as confirmed by his Pretrial Services Officer Mejia, needs Mr. Llevano-Rivera to not only work more hours at the store but to help with the delivery of groceries due to the increase in the demand for home deliveries resulting from COVID 19. These additional duties are required for Mr. Llevano-Rivera to maintain his employment.

The requested amendment to the conditions of Mr. Llevano-Rivera's bond are consented to by the Government and Pretrial. Officer Bernisa Mejia confirmed that Mr. Llevano-Rivera is compliant with all his conditions of bond.

Accordingly, it is respectfully requested the Court endorse this letter, granting Mr. Llevano-Rivera permission to make deliveries of groceries to Pioneer Supermarket customers and to provide Pretrial Officer Bernisa Mejia notice of his work schedule, as she requires. All other conditions of his bond are to remain in full force and effect.

Respectfully,

/s/

Donna R. Newman
